

manager of the strike, and headquarters was established in Progress Hall, 840 Third avenue, between Fifty-first and Fifty-second streets.

The carpenters' union are managing the strike, but have the active support of the Board of Delegates of the Building Trades, which represents all the unions of the various trades engaged in erecting buildings in this city.

The delegates of the carpenters' union began operations at 8 o'clock by making a tour about the city and visiting all the jobs where the "hump" men are in work. As a result, several hundred carpenters and joiners were called out and began to assemble in Progress Hall.

There are 160 or more so-called "humpers," who have jobs in all parts of the city, but the larger number are above Forty-second street.

Among the jobs that were struck this forenoon were those of Charles Lennox, a sub-contractor, who has the carpenter work on nine private residences on West Eighty-eighth street, near Riverside Drive, and also in twelve houses on the east side.

Lennox employed about twenty-five or thirty carpenters, and paid them $1.50 a day, but the larger number are above Forty-second street.

Bloane & Moller employed twelve men on new buildings in Sixty-second street, between 10th and 11th avenues, and paid a less rate than $1.50 a day. The delegates requested the carpenters to quit the job, and they were expected to strike at noon.

Stephen Bell was reported by the delegates to be another "humper," who employed twenty or twenty-five carpenters at 10th and 11th avenues, near Bleeker, paying some of his men $1.50, the union rate, but the delegates requested the men to come out, and they promised to do so.

Charles Zimmer had twenty-five carpenters at work on four houses in East Eighty-ninth street, near Third street, at $1 a day each, and also in a building at Eighty-fourth street, near Avenue A. All the jobs were expected to stop work at noon and report at Progress Hall.

The union carpenters were quite sanguine of winning the fight, for the reason that the carpenters employed on the "hump" jobs are not accustomed to obtaining the union rate of wages, and only want the support of the union in leaving their work. Then, in all cases where union men of other trades are employed in buildings, they have contracts, the union carpenters expected to force matters by calling upon the Board of Delegates of the Building Trades to order strikes on all such jobs.

The work on the "hump" jobs is progressing slowly, but the men were coming to Progress Hall in small squads, and it was thought fully 1,000 would quit work to-morrow. It was estimated that fully 1,500 carpenters in all are, or were, engaged on "hump" jobs.

Boys (Cause a Big Strike.)

(By Associated Press.)
SPRING VALLEY, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Another strike is on in Spring Valley. This time it is the "trampers," and while they only number about fifteen boys, nevertheless 1,500 men are on strike, and they remain on strike in a reduction of wages. General Manager Dulmage has refused to give in, and they say they will stand it. The drivers had a meeting and voted to stand by the boys.

Freelance Repented for Having Jumped in the River.

William Freeling, a German carpenter, forty-one years old, who said he lived at 100 Ten Eyck street, Brooklyn, is in the Harlem Hospital full of remorse and repentance for having attempted suicide by jumping in the Harlem River last evening.

Policeman Colligan, of the East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, was attracted to the foot of East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street at 10 o'clock last evening, and saw a large crowd which was calmly watching Freeling sink to the bottom of the river.

Colligan and J. J. Ryan, a policeman on the river front at that place, jumped into a rowboat and fished out the drowning man, and landed him on the pier. Freeling was taken to the hospital, where he now resides.

His coat pocket was found a note written in German, stating that having failed to find work he was tired of life. He begged forgiveness for the misfortune he had caused her. He recovered and was arraigned in Harlem Court to-morrow morning.

THE TENNESSEE LYNCHINGS.

They Have Aroused the Whole State to Indignant Protest.

(By Associated Press.)
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 4.—A criminal Court Judge L. C. Gooch left for Nashville at midnight, where he will meet Gov. Turney and personally lay the facts connected with the lynching of the six alleged negro barn burners near Millington, Tenn., before the Governor, and urge that a large reward be offered for the lynchings.

The Grand Jury took up the lynching and the several indictments are expected to-morrow.

At a meeting of the magistrates of Shelby County resolutions were adopted denouncing the lynching, and demanding that the lynchings be brought to justice. The whole city is aroused, and the butchery of the negroes, and scores of leading citizens are petitioning the Governor to offer rewards for the members of the mob.

IN THE NEW COURT.

Grand Jury Call the First Business Transacted.

Date for the Formal Dedication Not Yet Fixed.

The new Criminal Court-House filled up early this morning with lawyers and assistants and busy court officials and city employees. They wandered around in the corridors and poked their heads into the sacred precincts of the judges' private chambers, and got into rooms that they didn't know how to get out of again. Everybody was lost in the new building, and each was asking the other how to get somewhere, the locality of which the other had not the slightest idea.

At 10:30 o'clock a batch of thirty-three prisoners were marched across the "Bridge of Sighs" over Franklin street from the Tombs to the new Criminal Court-House and locked up in the prisoners' pen at the Court-House end of the bridge. They were the first batch of prisoners to make the trip which for many years to come will be taken by criminals of all excruciating conditions.

They were in couples, handcuffed, together, and they were led by a burly negro, James Jones, who has become known as "Raphael Arelino," also accused of assault. The prisoners were taken to the Court-House end of the bridge, and they were the first batch of prisoners to make the trip which for many years to come will be taken by criminals of all excruciating conditions.

At 11 o'clock the court-room of Part L of the Criminal Court-House was filled up with those lawyers who had succeeded in finding it. Among them were the attorneys for the State, the defense, and the prisoners. The court was called to order by Judge Martin.

GATHERING OF THE CLANS.

The Order of Scottish Clan in America, began a four days' extraordinary session this morning in the reception-room of the Metropolitan Hotel. Nearly a hundred delegates from the clans in nearly all of the States and Territories are in attendance.

The extra large session is being held pursuant to a call issued by the Royal Chief, Mr. Walter Scott, and is the result of a certain dissatisfaction among the Eastern members as to its future policy.

After Royal Chief Scott called the clansmen to order, it was found that a number of more than a hundred had not arrived in the city. The session was postponed until the morning.

Two factions probably exist in the clan, the one of which is more moderate in its views, and the other is more radical. The session was postponed until the morning.

Acting Mayor McCall, who is expected to arrive here to-morrow, is expected to deliver a short address of welcome.

RIVAL SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Two Principals and Two Assistants Had Been Engaged.

Trustees Bar Out One Set and Admit the Other.

PORTCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 4.—When the scholars of the East Portchester public school appeared at the school-house to-day to resume their fall course of studies, they were surprised to see two rival principals and two rival teachers ready to take charge of the school. The school trustees were also at the school to uphold one set of teachers and to refuse admittance to the others.

When the school closed for the summer season in July last, the trustees in office then, A. Brush Lowden and Charles Schuch, hired Samuel Caldwell as Principal, Miss Ida H. Fildwell as his assistant, and Miss Mary Husted and Miss Sadie Tompkins to teach the children at this term. At the election held recently, a new set of school trustees, including Henry Schuch, Joseph D. Schuch and Henry Husted, were elected. The new trustees refused to recognize the appointments of the old Board, and appointed M. L. Dunn, who was the Principal last year, and Miss Ida H. Fildwell as his assistant. Miss Husted and Miss Tompkins were satisfactory to the new members, and accordingly they were not molested.

When the school opened at 9 o'clock this morning the three Commissioners, Schuch, Caldwell and Fildwell, were at the school. Principal Caldwell was appointed, and Miss Fildwell was appointed, and Miss Husted and Miss Tompkins were satisfactory to the new members, and accordingly they were not molested.

HOT CHASE FOR A FLAT TIE.

Barron Jumped On and Off Street Cars with Amazing Agility.

Was Trying to Use a Jimmy on a Door When Discovered.

Joseph Barron had barely got his breathing apparatus into its normal condition when he was arraigned before Justice McMahon in the Yorkville Court to-day and remanded until to-morrow for further examination on a charge of attempted burglary.

Barron is a twenty-one years old, lives at 610 Eighth avenue, and for some time in a general way has supplied the Police Department with celluloid collars and cuffs. He is therefore well known to the members of the force.

Shortly before 6 o'clock last evening Barron, it is charged, attempted to break into the apartments of J. Rozella, a commission merchant who occupies the fifth flat in the apartment house, 29 West Sixtieth street. Mr. Rozella and his family were not at home.

Miss Annie Salstein, the janitress, was lighting the gas in the hallway, and when she reached the fifth floor she saw Barron just outside of the door leading to Rozella's apartments. When Barron was discovered he fled downstairs.

Miss Salstein started in pursuit, yelling "Stop thief!" at the top of her voice. Barron jumped over the railing and ran from the house and ran up Sixth street. The policeman gave chase, and was joined by Henry Husted.

As Barron ran he threw away a Jimmy. At the junction of the boardwalk and the city street, Barron was caught by a policeman. He was taken to the station-house.

ALL SUGAR AND TELEGRAPH.

Those Two Stocks the Feature of Wall Street.

Northwestern Stocks Affected by the Forest Fires.

Speculation at the Stock Exchange opened firm, but soon afterwards a decline of 1-4 to 1 per cent. ensued. Rock Island and Chicago Gas were the weakest stocks, the former selling down from 65-1/2 to 64-1/2, and Chicago Gas from 74-1/4 to 73-1/4.

Rock Island was unfavorably influenced by the heavy loss in gross earnings for August and incidentally, with the other Grangers and Northwest stocks, by the big forest fires. Chicago Gas was sold for Western account, and the old story of a big gas strike revived. On the other hand, Western Union was decidedly strong, and on pool buying rose to 91.

The report of the Manhattan Elevated Railway Company for the fiscal year ending June 30 shows: Gross earnings, $10,153,595; decrease from the previous year, $257,881; operating expenses, $6,325,636; decrease, $288,493; net earnings, $3,827,959; increase, $44,314.

For the fourth week of August the Canadian Pacific earned $230,000, a decrease of $3,000; and for the month $1,010,000, a decrease of $20,000. The Rock Island for the month of August earned $1,010,000, a decrease of $20,000, and the St. Paul for the month $1,010,000, an increase of $20,000.

The steamship Seaguard, from Vera Cruz, brought 5,805 Mexican silver dollars to the Port of British North America. The exports, exclusive of specie, from the port of New York for the week were $5,412,131, against $5,884,592 for the corresponding week of last year.

Western Union and American Sugar were the features of the stock market yesterday. Western Union, which dropped to 171-1/2, rallied to 183-3/4. Panhandle common and preferred were in strong demand, the former advancing to 18-1/4, and the preferred to 21.
